

In accordance with the Mayor's Proclamation, and to support community safety, both library locations will be closed to the public from March 17, 2020 @ 8pm - April 1, 2020.

- Phone reference service may be available weekdays from 10am-2pm dependent on staffing.
- Patrons are encouraged to keep ALL items, including interlibrary loan materials, at home. You can renew online or call during reference service hours.
- All fines for late materials will be waived during this time.
- Please do not leave any donations at the library or any materials outside of doors. These materials will not be processed.
- Patrons are encouraged to make use of the library's many e-resources during this time.
- We look forward to serving our community in person again soon, and we thank you for your patience during this time.

Please continue to monitor the library's website and social media accounts for updates, for trustworthy news sources, and for online links to enrichment opportunities for all ages.
